

BSNS6032 : Advanced Corporate Finance

Covers both the theoretical background and practical implications of the central issues in corporate financial management, including capital structure decisions, dividend payout decisions, and asset valuation. Real options are considered as an enhancement to traditional capital budgeting methods. Also, issues related to security design are covered.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

BSNS6031: Corporate Finance

Prerequisites

Prerequisite course or Instructor's approval