

EDUC7556 : Conceptual Statistics and Applications for Educators

This course is an introduction to statistical approaches to making decisions in K-12 schools. It introduces students to descriptive and inferential statistics commonly used in education. The primary objective of the course is to understand how to read and find meaning in statistics as well as to use statistics for the purposes of self-guided research. No previous coursework in statistics is assumed.

Credits 3