

EDUC8671 : Educational Change: A Historical Perspective

This course presents the impact of the psychological, sociological, and cultural changes that have made our schools into what they are today and how that impact affects school administration. Problem solving and decision-making skills will be emphasized.

Credits 3