

NURS7060 : Principles of Teaching and Curriculum Development

The principles of adult education and learning styles are examined as foundational to curriculum design and development. Philosophical and contemporary curriculum designs are explored. Development of an education portfolio is required. Experiential learning activity required.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Instructor's approval