

SOWK7612 : Clinical Social Work with Families

Students will critically explore Family Therapy Theory within the social work frame of reference. Students will learn to integrate theory and practice. Practical applications of family theory are explored through case examples, role play and reflective writing that includes both self- analysis and sociocultural understanding.

Credits 2