

SOWK7618 : Clinical Social Work with Groups

Students will explore group therapy theory and fundamentals of group development and process. As participant learners, students will experience group dynamics through a modified group experience facilitated by the instructor.

Credits 2