

PRTH9345 : Missional Church and Leadership Development

This course explores the role of the Christian leader and the Church in light of Christ's missional mandate. It will to equip ministers to lead and manage churches and mission agencies. Special attention will be given to the student's ability to conceive and articulate purpose, mission, and vision for ministry and assist the student in developing the strategic means to realize that vision. Students will also develop a ministry project from their own cultural context, assessing their own leadership, church structures, and community needs and developing strategies for more effective missional ministry implementation. The student will take this class face to face at the end of their coursework.
