

COUN7524 : Organization of Comprehensive School Counseling Services

This course is designed to prepare counselors to develop comprehensive school counseling programs that are standards-based, data-driven, accountable, and grounded in principles of human growth and development. Emphasis will be on contemporary approaches to “transformed” program development based on the ASCA Model for School Counseling Programs and the National Center for Transforming School Counseling by The Education Trust.

Credits 2

Prerequisite Courses

COUN7521: School Counseling