

COUN7545 : Collaboration and Consultation in School Counseling

This course studies the challenges, resources, and experiences of exceptional children and their families in identifying and receiving comprehensive and collaborative mental health services and other supports at school, at home, and in their communities. The course emphasizes the role of the school counselor as a consultant through ethical standards and appropriate responsibilities. Students will examine multi-tiered systems of support, which require collaborative consultation to be successful.

Credits 2

Prerequisite Courses

COUN7521: School Counseling