

COUN7563 : Clinical Intervention and Prevention

This course is designed to enhance student knowledge of the most prevalent diagnostic problems for clinical clients. Pharmacological and clinical treatments, including best practice research, will be used to increase students' clinical effectiveness in the clinical setting. No prerequisites, but strongly encouraged that students have taken Practicum or are enrolled in Practicum.

Credits 3