

NURS4100 : Concepts of Leadership and Management in Professional Nursing

Explore concepts of leadership and management applied within professional nursing practice. Nursing and healthcare trends within the context of regional, national and international arenas will be explored. Principles of adult education, technology in learning and scholarly writing are included. The University values will be introduced. Clinical component included. Fulfills a nursing baccalaureate content requirement for RN to MSN Areas of Study. Fee: Additional fee required.

Credits 4

Fees

$285