

PSYD9866 : Pre-Internship

This course is designed to provide oversight, support, and consultation of the clinical practicum experience. Students will meet with an on-campus faculty member to review cases, integrate concepts from other courses, and receive feedback from their peers and faculty. In addition, students will receive instruction and support in the APPIC internship process and will apply for internship during this course.

Grade of pass/fail.

Credits 1

Prerequisite Courses

PSYD8602: Clinical Practicum 302

Corequisites

Clinical Training at a practicum site.