

THEO4535 : Christian Theology I

An advanced systematic study of the Christian faith from a Wesleyan perspective, with particular reference to historical development and contemporary understanding. The subjects include theological methodology, revelation and inspiration, the trinitarian God, humanity, and sin.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

THEO2105: Introduction to Christian Theology

Prerequisites

Program admission